

NIGHTCREEPER

Hurry my dear, don't dawdle now
Whilst all around you sleeps
You shouldn't be here, you mustn't be here
The stranger softly creeps.
Don't stop my dear, don't give him a chance
To snatch you from your dreams
He shouldn't be here, he mustn't be here
He's not the man he seems

He's watching you and licking his lips
He wants to capture you
Don't trip my dear, don't fall my dear,
His lucid thoughts are few
Don't walk my dear, just run my dear,
And let your fears take flight
The graveyard isn't the safest place
For a girl alone at night

So, quicken your pace, speed up my girl,
I know you are afraid
He's following now, along the path
You're part of a plan he's made
His darkest desires, his twisted needs are Nightmares you can't bear
Make haste my love, be safe my love,
Take heart, you'll soon be there

Don't cry my dear, just rush my dear
You can almost feel his breath,
He's closer still and enjoying the thrill
He has no fear of death
Just a few more yards and a few more steps
And you'll be home again,
But remember my dear, don't forget my dear,
Beware of those dangerous men.
